

Dennis Milton Bailey

June 30, 1955 - January 20, 2010

DENNIS MILTON BAILEY passed away suddenly on January 20, 2010. He was born in Farmville, Virginia on June 30, 1955 to Hazel Bailey and the late Richard Bailey. As an infant he moved to Baltimore, Maryland name with his family. Dennis received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. In 1974 he graduated from the former Fairmount Hill High School. After graduating, Dennis began working for the Baltimore City Department of Parks and Recreations. He stayed there for twenty-five years until he had to retire for medical reasons. Though Dennis was a bit on the shy and quiet side, he was still very outgoing. He was LIKED and LOVED by all that knew him. He was always courteous and thoughtful to others, as well as helpful where he could be. He was the jolly, friendly uncle to all the nieces and nephew. He was the go to brother when something was needed, especially when it was one of his brother, that affectionately nicknamed him Eggie. That name stuck with him for years, even the neighborhood friends knew him by that name. He was also the Guru of Photography in our family. Whatever family function we had, you could always depend on Denniseno being there with the camera. He especially loved to photograph the children to make them laugh while he joked with them. Some other things some did not know about Dennis, is that he had a love for writing and poetry. He could put words together that would just melodically flow. It was unfortunate that he never pursued this talent. He also had an avid passion for music. He loved to listen to music as well as sing it. He had a pretty nice voice too. Dennis also loved to read the Bible and quote verses and scriptures to anyone that would listen. Though he didn't belong to a particular church, he was THERE, and he would go as often as he could. He must have visited just about every church in East Baltimore. There is no doubt, GOD will continue to love and cherish him for Eternity. Dennis is one of nine children and one of six boys in the family. Unfortunately three of his brothers preceded him in death, James R. Bailey, Willie E. Bailey and Ralph L. Bailey. Dennis leaves in love to mourn him: his mother, Hazel Bailey; two brothers, Jerry Bailey and Curtis Bailey; three sisters, Shirley Bailey, Teresa Elliott and Charlene Sealey; two brothers-in-law, Darryl Sealey and Garrett Elliott. He also leaves in loving memory a host of nieces, nephew, cousin and cherished friends.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ May your family put Trust in the God of all Comfort Almighty God has made a promise to all of us that he will soon fulfill. It is found at Revelation 21:4; "And he will wipe every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry,nor pain be any more. The former things have passed away. Take care of each other.##imported-begin##Y. Thompson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to the Bailey family. The untimely loss of a dearly loved one can be painful that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the hope of a resurrection by stating: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promise of "God, who cannot lie."-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Dennis Milton Bailey. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
