

Dennis Newton

December 25, 1957 - January 31, 2012

Dennis Newton, the son of the late Rodney Nevance and pearl Dennis Newton was born December 25, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland . Suddenly, on the morning of January 31, Dennis was called to take his eternal rest.

Dennis was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. After receiving his General Education Diploma, he enrolled and successfully completed his Associate's degree from Hagerstown Junior College with a degree in Business Administration.

Dennis had a genuine commitment to help anyone in need. As a young man, his love for reading developed after reading Manchild In The Promised Land. He honed his listening skills so effectively, that when listening to you, he made you believe that you were the most important person in the room.

He deeply loved his family, The Newtons. At family reunions you could count dennis to help in some Capacity. No job was beneath him. He could be depended upon to assist with frying chicken, gathering for activites, cleaning up, and or watching the children. He pitched in wherever he saw the need.

Dennis was particularly proud of all his nieces. It didn't matter how small or how great their accomplishments, he always boasted about them and rewarded them in some way. Additionally, Dennis would often seek them out to make sure that life was going well for them. For this, they loved him dearly.

As everyone knows, Dennis was Mr. "Tyrone's chicken" more than Tyrone. He enjoyed frying chicken and the socialization that came with public service. Dennis had a incandescent smile, but he will be most remembered for his infectious laugh.

He leaves to cherish his memory 2 brothers, Rodney Newton Jr. and Abdus Salaam Abdul-Illaha, 2 sisters, Christine Peace and Ronnie Newton-Rucker, his favorite brother-in-law Jumah Rucker, 4 nephews, 10 nieces, 11 great nieces and nephews, 1 great-great nephew, 2 aunts, Menyon McCallum of Baltimore, MD and Margie McNair of red Springs, NC, and a host cousins and good friends.

“ It's just me, I'm late but you know I sent Birthday wishes up to Heaven for my angel. Lets talk about football...hahahaha I know you was cracking up when my team was on the field watching and praying that the Browns beat the Ravens! But, it was all fun and jokes until the following week, when I returned the favor!! Man I know you would have been so upset, but.....hahahaha!

I miss you so much Dennis, the kids and I talk about you all the time. Breonna's wedding was beautiful and I know you would so proud of Brandon working on Capital Hill, and no need to mention Lauren. That child had you wrapped around her finger! I can't believe it will be 7 years since you left me. I can still hear your laugh, and though it erked my nerves at times, I would love to here it again! My good good friend LaVonda the one eho use to do my hair, passed away this week, please give her a BIG hug for me. On another note,some white guy has you phone number, I call sometimes and say I have the wrong number when he answers. Well that's all I have today, and like the many days and years that has past, I still love and miss you!

“ Friday marked two years you've been gone and yesterday marked two years since I saw you. My heart is still heavy missing bad mourning you, everything reminds me of you...something to tell you, something you would like, something that would make you laugh (only your laugh) and if course the SuperBowl (you would have gone for the Seahawks). Not a day go by that I don't wanna call you, something in my everyday doing reminds me of you or something happened and I can do is think I would have called you! Dona, I understand how you feel. It's still weird not to see that Maxima or receive my random "I love you niece" calls. Stay encouraged.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“Cuzo, words cannot explain the broken heartiness that my family and I are feeling at this time. Cuzo, I thank God for the time that he did give us with you. We had some good times joking and laughing at the Newton’s family reunions. Dennis, you will truly be missed; I know I will miss your laugh and your friendship. I have so many good memories over the years that we had shared, bowling at the convention in PA, playing basketball in NC, and attending marathons together.

RIP Dennis Newton

John 14

(1) Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. (2) In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. (3) And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

(18) I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. (19) Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also

Lando*
