“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Ezekiel 18:32 lovingly tells us that Almighty God does not "take any delight in the death of someone". In fact, the Holy Scriptures give hope of the dead returning to life, a resurrection. Hosea 13:14 informs us: "From the hand of Sheol (the grave) I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O death? Where is your destructiveness, O Sheol?" May you receive much comfort and strength from the loving resurrection hope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I send my sincere and heartfelt condolences for your loss. When people lose their loved ones in death they wonder, will I ever see them again? The bible man Job also wanted to know the answer to this question. At Job 14:14 he asked: "If an able-bodied man dies, can he live again? The answer is in the next verse which says, "You will call and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning. So Job belived in the ressurection. He knew that God would yearn to see his faithful servant alive again. So if we are faithful as Job was, who was a man of integrity, then we will indeed see our loved ones when they come to life again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
