“ Deric Ford, my grandfather. I am proud my grandfather touched a lot of people. He was smart, respectful, also mindful of others. I still think about him till this day, he only past a few days before my birthday i can't explain how i feel or what it feels like every year that went by since he pasted. How i feel or what i'm thinking, i always get very emotional before my birthday i don't know why or anybody but i always find myself crying, lashing out. Now i realize it's just i never let go of him..

“ Deric was and employee of mine during our time together at Dollar General. Deric was a hard-working individual and truly cared for his employees and customers. We talked often of his large family, involvement in the church, and goals and aspirations for his life.

What a tragedy to find that his life ended in the place that he spent serving the community. To the man that took his life over a small-amount of money, you have no idea the impact of your actions.

God bless Deric...he was just the nicest guy, trying to live an honest life, and someone indiscriminately took him from those who needed him most.

“ To the Ford Family: My deepest sympathy to the family in the loss of your family member, Mr. Derrick Ford. Although I did not personally know him, I found him to be a truly friendly and helpful employee of Dollar General, always greeting you with a smile and offer of help. This senseless loss makes us question things, but we have to believe that Almighty God had a better job for him in His Heavenly Kingdom. May God wrap his arms around each of you and let you know "JOY COMES IN THE MORNING." God bless you all.
