

Derick Cottman

October 17, 1963 - May 31, 2026

Derick Cottman, beloved son of Carolyn Cottman Hampton and Jimmy Jerome Hampton Sr., departed this life on May 31, 2026. Derick, the oldest son of three children, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on October 17, 1963.

Derick (Donkey), as he was affectionately known, attended Franklin Senior High School. Derick loved sports, and he excelled in Baseball and Basketball where he received many trophy's, certificates, and awards. Derick was neat in his clothes and would receive numerous comments from the girls. He enjoyed working with his hands, drawing, designing, and building wood furniture.

Derick enjoyed playing the Lottery and driving fast cars. He loved being around family, playing cards, telling stories, joking, and sampling different foods. He was a friend to all, and he had a great love for animals. Derick was multi-talented and loved to explore different occupational fields. He was employed as a Truck Driver, Warehouse Team Leader, Car Technician, and as an employee for City Housing.

He leaves to mourn: Mother Carolyn Cottman Hampton, Father Jimmy J. Hampton Sr., two brothers Jimmy J. Hampton Jr. and Keith Hampton Sr., one sister-in-law Stefanie Hampton, one nephew Keith Hampton Jr., one niece Jineara Hampton, great nephew Silas Hampton, special cousin Ayesha Bennett, special friends Harvey, Aaron, Butch, Mr. Wade and a host of relatives and friends.
