“ its so many things i wish i could talk to you about we parted with so many words left unsaid. but as you already know i miss you like crazy and at this point in my life i really need you so mant things are so wrong and if you were here im sure everything would be better. The 15 is coming so quickly i cant believe it has been 8 years since youve been gone. i think about you everyday all day im old enough to understand now whats going on things i didnt understand back then now make sense to me. evrytime i come on here i tell myself that im not gonna cry and i fail at that everytime. i miss you so much and i would give anything and everything just to have you back but i know i cant. its crazy that your the only person i feel i can talk to about any and everything and your not even here. im stressing myself to much and its really ruining my life. im never happy and i dont know why its not like im alone but people dont understand what im going through and i believe you do because you are watching over me daily. anyway im not here to complain i wanted to just stop by and say hello and let you know that i love and miss u sooo much continue to watch over me and keep me safe thinking of you always.

Love,
Shelbie

“ Hey Son, Today i visited you where you are resting and at first I was amazed that your flowers were still fresh, but then I thought, of course they would be!!! It is still so hard to believe that you are not here with me any more even though I know you are forever in my heart. I still miss you so very much. I wish I could hear you on the phone saying "you got some money" i think that will be the first thing you'll say to me when we meet again, but until we do, my memories of you will help to brighten my day, when I get sad(which I do a lot). Always remember that I Love You More Than Life.###imported-begin##MOMMY##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I wanted to respond to the family of Derrick, because in reading the other comments I can see how much he is loved and missed by many. He was such a handsome young man, and it's so heartbreaking when a person loses his life at a such a young age. I really feel your pain, because my son also died when he was young 10 years ago. What comforts my family is the sure hope of the ressurection. When Jesus was here on earth he brought many people back to life, including his good friend Lazarus; and a 12-year old little girl. When she opened her eyes the bible says that her parents were beside themselves with ecstasy at seeing her alilve again. Please read these heartwarming accounts at Mark 5:38-43, and John 11:38-44. Very soon, as king of God"s kingdom, Jesus will ressurect many more back from the dead, becasue Jehovah has given his son all authority to do this. According to John 5:26-29, all those who are in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus"s voice and come out to life again." I would really like to share Jehovah"s wonderful purpose with you, so please contact me at my e-mail address. May the love of Jehovah God and Christ Jesus continue to be with you, and comfort you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Its been so long that you have been gone and I still cant Accept the fact that your gone. It seems like only yesterday you and mommy was playing around,man they were the good days. I miss everything about you and I wish I could hold you in my arms just one last time and tell you how much you mean to me im pretty sure you already know this but telling you face to face would have been better. Even though you have been gone for 5 years I still Cant stop the tears from flowing and the pain from burning deep down inside my heart. HUH I remember when you and dank use to fight almost everyday and when I would go out side and see at the bus stop you would run from me when i would try to hug you. I would give anything in the world just to have you back just to hear you laugh again just to hear the sound of your voice saying ma can I have some money. But that wont happen no Matter how much I hope and pray.Im training to be a Emergency Medical Techncian I only have 2 more years to go then I will be certified and i will be done with school. Its crazy because I never thought I would be able to be a doctor I didnt think I had the strength to do it after you left but then I realized if I wouldnt do it for myself then I would do it for you and mommy. Mommy is still hurt but I am standing by her side and reminding her that you left something that noone has and that is your beautiful daughter. Well I gotta go Cause im about to cry I LOVE YOU and i will talk to you soon. Shelbie Selby###imported-begin##Shelbie##imported-end##

“ Today is october 16 11:57pm and all I have been able to do is sit and think about you all day. It's strange how ou think that as time goes by you would be able t hold in the pain and the tears but it just seems like th all I have been doin. I cant believe how long it has been and how fast I am growing up I just wish you were able to see how much we have grown. Derrick you should know by now how mch I miss you b/c I say it all the time and I want you to always know that you are my motivation every thing I do i do for you AND ONLY YOU. I dont even know what to say but I wanna talk to you. I dont know if anyone notices or even cares enough to ask how I feel b/c I have alon my mind that I wanna say but I cant. I wanna talk about how I feel about losing you but I cant. You know every night I close my eyes I get these flashbacks like I was in the car when you died and I felt what you felt but I dont. Everytime my teacher asked a question about things such as a hero or something like that you are the first one that comes to mind. I dont know I guess I am the only one that is still hurting the way i was hurt when you first died. I just cant seem to stop crying. It's funny because when i hear this song called because you loved me I just break down because I can picture yuor face. Any way I love you forever and will talk to you lata because lam really sad right now and I am holding back tears thats is about to just come out. love you and see you soon SHELBY SELBY###imported-begin##Shelbie##imported-end##

“ Derrick, I was telling somebody about my kids and showing them pictures, so I came to your site to show them how much you were loved and missed, and to show them how handsome your are. It has been some time since you went home, but to me it seems like yesterday. Everyone is growin up and starting their own lives. We really had some fun times together. You were my first born so you were there from the beginning, for the good and bad times. I used to get sad everytime I thought about all the times we laughed and had fun because I miss those times so much. I still cry sometimes when i think about it but mostly when I think of you I just smile and remember that beautiful smile you had. Destiny is so big, I know you are so proud of the beautiful child you left for us to cherish in your memory, I wish you could have been here to see her and to help raise her, but I know that you are watching over her. She is so much like you and she definitely has that beautiful smile you have, and she knows how to use it, just like her Daddy!! Dank just had a beautiful baby girl. I know she and Destiny will be just as close as you and Dank and Deandre. Well, I just wanted to tell you that I LOVE AND MISS YOU SO MUCH.###imported-begin##mommy##imported-end##

“ I was looking at my keys and I saw your picture and I thought I should pay you a visit. It has been a long time but to me it seems like it was only yesterday they came home and told us what happened and now I cant stop crying.. Derrick please know that I am trying so hard to do What I need to do But it is so hard this diabetes is killing me I just cant take it I am so depressed and upset... When ever I feel like crying I think of all the laughs we shared and it make my day a little better.... You just dont know how much I miss and need you. you were like the peace maker you brought us all together and thats why I love you so much. your daughter is so beautiful every time i look at her i see you and it is such a beautiful sight. for some reason now that your gone I feel lost and I have no one to talk to and I am in so much pain.... so I try to work all the time to make my day go faster..... we are supposed to be goin to six flags but I dont feel as though it would be fun with out you or deandre..... I dont know why but I feel like I am alone and I have to do for some one to feel needed... yea i know i shouldnt but with out my life is not complete... I was offered a job as a nurses tech and I know you would be proud of me it just hurts so much to share some thing so very important with the ones closest to you and it seems like no one cares but I know you would have... I just want you to know that I wake up and get my day started and work hard to reach my dreams for you and I just want to say THANK YOU so much for believing in me and making me feel like im strong and I am capable of anything in life well Derrick I LOVE AND MISS YOU AND I WILL SEE YOU SOON##imported-begin##Shelbie##imported-end##

“ wow I cant belive the time that you left us has come back again. I still cant belive that your gone and I am all alone in the world.. No one to talk to no one to laugh with and most importantly no one who loved me as much as you do..... Lately I have not been my self I have been sad and upset not wanted to be around anyone.. You made my life worth while even though we did not have that same best friend connection that u had with every one else. But at the end of the day I still love you more than life its self.... It hurts me the most to know that were are at this point and I have not told you every day how much you mean to mean when I know I should.... for now I will go because I am about to cry..... JUST KNOW THAT I LOVE YOU AND YOU ARE ALWAYS ON MY MIND AND FOREVER WILL BE IN MY HEART##imported-begin##Shelbie##imported-end##

“ I know your probably thinking in your head this girl stays on this web site but I dont care. This is how much I think of you. Day in and day out. Things have been crazy for me these past few days. But I have moved past it as you already know. Do you remember when we used to beat eachother up with boxes when ever we moved.. that was so fun. Last night I looked at your Prom tape and I just cried... hearing the sound of your voice and your laugh and that smile that could brighten any ones day. I found some of your clothes in the basement and it smells just like you... I cant sit here and say that i dont wanna cry because I do But the memories were shared only makes me smile and laugh. I love you more than life its self and I would give any thing just to hear you laugh and smile. just one more time I LOVE YOU AND I WANT YOU TO ALWAYS KNOW THAT##imported-begin##Shelbie##imported-end##
