

Derrick Levar Miles Sr.

April 8, 1987 - June 17, 2017

Derrick Levar Miles, Sr., 30, of Richmond, Virginia departed this life June 17, 2017. He was born in Richmond, Virginia to Cassandra Farmer and Wayne Harris on April 8, 1987. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Richard James, Connie Miles, Christine Harris and William Harris, Sr.

Derrick accepted Christ at an early age at Grace Institutional Baptist Church. He later transferred his membership to Union Branch Baptist Church where he became an ordained Deacon and then a licensed Minister at Community Baptist Church in Rhode Island.

Derrick enlisted into the United States Navy seven years ago to enrich his life as a man. He was a Yeoman 2nd Class and enjoyed spending nine months on the Mediterranean Seas. Derrick was proud to serve his country in spite of missing his family back home.

Derrick was united in holy matrimony to Ramesha Wilson in Chesterfield, Virginia on March 30, 2015. Their union was blessed with three children.

Derrick received his formal education in the Amelia County School System in Amelia, Virginia. He later furthered his education and received an Associates

Degree from Bryant and Stratton College in Richmond, Virginia.

Derrick enjoyed spending time with his family, friends and faithful companion, Ramesha. He was best known for his love of singing, photography, mentoring the youth and playing video games. Derrick was a husband, father, son, brother that was a provider and that truly loved his family. He was kind-hearted, generous and thoughtful. He will be missed tremendously.

Derrick leave to cherish his memory a loving wife of 4 years, Ramesha Miles; three sons, Derrick Jr., Christopher Miles and Preston Coleman; parents, Cassandra Farmer (Edward) and Wayne Harris (Carolyn); three sisters, Paris and Jasmine Miles and Anissa Shelton; two brothers, Derrius Miles and Aaron Harris; mother-in-law, Karen Byrd (William); god-mother, Wanda Monroe; god-daughter, Candace Goodson; 3 sisters-in-law; 3 brothers-in-law, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I was so sorry to learn of Derick's passing, and in the prime of life. I taught him at Bryant & Stratton and remember him as a kind, responsible man who was a good student. I am sure you have wonderful memories, but also recognize what a tremendous loss this is. For that, I pray blessing and healing for his friends and family.
