“ My sweet cousin I remember when you entered this earth. So inquisitive, quiet and serene. And that smile of yours could light up the darkest room. You were perfect as God made you to be. You and Tyree was inseparable, best friends per say. I remember those days like yesterday including the time you sat outside the window on the second floor in Squire Hill waving at traffic. You were fearless, fierce and determined. I send much love from Florida, hugs and kisses and my sincere condolences to you all.

Mr. Glass, thank you for showing your dedication to families laying there loved ones to their resting place. I was the last one to leave my grandsons grave and you had come to the site making sure everything was being done correctly and as well as telling me how to locate his grave spot. Thanks again.

“ Deshaun, this doesn't seem real. Auntie misses and loves you so much. I'm so sorry I didn't message you back Monday. I'm so glad I got to talk to you Thursday before you left us. Please watch over Alyssa and the girls. Alyssa is so heart broken and lost right now. Please help me keep Alyssa standing strong for herself and the kids. I know that's what you would want. I'm so glad God gave me the privilege of knowing and loving you. Shaun, I would do anything to hug you ONE more time, or just to hear your voice. ❤️

“ My darling Grandson, I’m so heartbroken you are no longer here with us. I know it wasn’t your choice to leave so soon but our God called your name early January 19, Tuesday morning to come home. You were my first born grandson and I loved you from the moment I found out I would be blessed with you. I have so many memories of you and your smile was breathtaking. Your 28 years here you never got in trouble now gave your mom and dad any problems.

Continue to call my name (Gramma) as my guardian angle. I held you, kissed you, messed with them little ears, talked to you and kissed you some more on Tuesday as you rested as if you were just asleep. I love you so much and I will always miss you. +
