“ Dear family and friends. Please accept my condolences for the loss of your beautiful son, grandson, brother, nephew and friend. It's been said that there is no greater pain than that of losing a child. I can understand as a parent; I too lost a child, a daughter and the 'sting of her death' still lingers almost 5 years later. Time, as well as comfort has been a huge help in the healing process. It is my hope that I can help comfort you today through God's Word the bible. In it, at John 5:28, 28 it says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..... Also Isaiah 26:19 says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully you residents in the dust!... What comfort knowing that soon we will welcome back to life, those death has taken from us. May the memories keep you going and the hope keep you strong.
