“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family. In difficult times such as this, it is comforting to know that "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves" Psalm 34:18. May you all find the comfort you need to sustain you during this time.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ To the family, My family and I offer our deepest condolences. As difficult as times like these may be, there is a true source of comfort for you, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. He will strengthen and sustain you.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I wish to send my most deepest sympathy to the Jefferson family. I am sorry that you lost your bundle of joy. I wanted to share a comforting scripture that will help you deal with such a tremendous loss. It was not apart of God's arrangement that mankind should suffer and die. One day soon by means his kingdom death will be no more. John 5:28,29 makes the promise when it says, "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will here is voice and come out".....Isaiah 25:8,9 says,"that the Sovereign Jehovah will swallow up death forever".##imported-begin##K.D.
