“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mrs. Campbell. Isaiah 26:19 lovingly informs us: "Your dead ones will live...they will rise up...Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!" May you receive much comfort and strength as you think deeply about the wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ I'd like to send my deepest sympathy to you all on your loss. The death of a loved one is such a devastating thing for a family to have to go through, but there is good news ahead. In the scriptures God promises an end to sickness and death. He also promises that the dead will be brought back to life. Imagine the joy of being reunited with Desno again. John 5:28,29 says: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who practiced good things to a ressurection of life. Also Daniel 12,2 tells us that there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. Please trust in Jehovah God and his son Jesus, because together they will change the world into a paradise of pleasure, and the former things will not be called to mind; neither will they come up into the heart. May your precious memories of Desna be a great souce of comfort to you in the days ahead. Isaiah 65:17##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of Desna. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual life span was 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At I time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. I know the sadness associated with the loss of one you love and I know the comfort offered by God in his Word the Bible. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 which talks about the hope of a resurrection for the righteous and the unrighteous. After reading these two scriptures please turn your attention to John 3:16 and Matthew 20:28. These two scriptures tell us why we can put faith in the promise of a resurrection. May they provide you with comfort and hope as they have for me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
