“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your dear loved one. Our family finds much comfort from the Bible. One such encouraging passage is - Job 14:14,15- "If an ablebodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." So God assures us that He has a yearning, a very strong desire to raise our loved ones back to life. And this he promises to do. May this bring you much comfort in the days ahead.###imported-begin##Sharon Hill###imported-end##

“ To the Family of Devon A. Boston: I send my deepest condolences to the Boston family for your great loss. Devon was a man who loved to be around people and helped others. However, there will be a time when you can see him again. In the Bible at John 5:28 ,29 it speaks of a resurrection hope in which those in "memorial tombs will hear His voice and come out." So there is a hope for Devon. Also at Isaiah 25:8, it says that "God will swallow up death forever." So you can find hope and comfort in the scriptures. Again, my deepest regards for the family goes out.###imported-begin##Brittany###imported-end##
