

Devon Travis Butler

August 29, 1986 - August 12, 2022

Devon Travis Butler victoriously finished his race on earth on Friday, August 12, 2022. Devon was born August 29, 1986 in Hartford, CT to Flora M. Butler and Gregory L. Campbell. Devon was predeceased by his father, Gregory L. Campbell, and his grandfather Walter Jordan. After losing his father at a young age, Devon and his mother developed an even closer bond, as they relocated to Metropolitan Richmond. One of his mother's proudest moments was when Devon accepted the Lord as his road map throughout his life. Devon had a kind, loving, caring and friendly spirit. He enjoyed meeting and conversing with people of all backgrounds.

Devon was inquisitive and had a thirst for knowledge and an eagerness to share his knowledge. He was a master chess player who participated in various tournaments and served as captain of his chess team. Devon held various positions in the field of construction. He was truly "a thinker," who was insightful and wise beyond his years. He was an animal lover who had a menagerie of pets over the years including a dog, cat, rabbit, bird, turtle, and fish. Music was also a big part of Devon's life. He loved various musical genres such as gospel, jazz, and especially neo-soul. A little-known fact is that he had a great musical ear and was a self-taught keyboardist. He had a deep sense of spirituality and a relationship with the Lord who kept Devon grounded and walking in favor for 35 years. He laughed heartily, was passionate about reading, cooking, watching television, and dancing, singing, and joking with his mom, and life in general.

He is survived by his mother, Flora M. Butler of Midlothian, VA; Grandmother Delores Jordan of Bloomfield, CT; Godfather/Uncle Miles D. Butler Sr., of Powhatan, VA; Godmother Laverne Arcee, and Godsister Asia Arcee, both of Hartford, CT; and a host of uncles, aunts, and several cousins, one who he loved dearly, Master Sergeant Theron A. Betsey (USAF) of San Antonio, TX; and many friends.
