

Devonte' Lezander Jamall Bowman

December 26, 1991 - July 14, 2012

Devonte' Lezander Jamell was born to Jaenickole Davis and Avery Smith on Thursday, December 26, 1991. He attended Baltimore County Public Schools where he was apart of the swim team, winning numerous medals. He used his prize winning swimming technics to land him a position as a life guard throughout Baltimore County and Callowhill Aquaic Center. He also possessed a great love for dancing and being the life of the occasion. Often times Taeda Man as he was affectionately known to his family and Taedo to his friends, could be found creating roaring laughter from his family and friends with his infectious, witty personality and perfect comedic timing.

Although there were many nicknames given the most prized was one by his mother "Dhe Boi". Everyone close to him knew he was "Dhi Boi" and she was truly his #1 girl. He love possessed by the two of them is one to be recorded in history. He knew without a doubt he was irreplaceable as he stated in his later conversation "Mom, there will never be another Dhi Boi". Aside from the gifts and talents, Devonte' was most known for his level of RESPEC."Yes, ma'am, no ma'am" is the response one would receive regardless of he were 9 or 19. In fact, his level of respect is the trademark many throughout his childhood and adulthood will forever attribute to his character. Those installments of great character and superior manners can be attributed to his great grandparents Doris and Teloius Davis who were 2nd parents to Devonte'. He was like their youngest son as he brought great joy and rejuvenation to their lives. Although his angel will be sorely missed, we are firm in faith that he is apart of heaven's army, resting forever in the arms of the King!

He leaves to cherish his memory his parents, Jaenickole Davis, Avery Smith, Kenya Dudley, sister Jaiden, brother Akin, fiancé Shanicka Artist, daughter Jay'la, grandmothers Tanya Davis and Robin Smith-Handy, Godparents , second mothers, a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who loved him dearly!

Taeda baby, I can't believe it!! Even preparing for your funeral, I just keep thinking this can't be real. I just keep thinking about to when you lived on Ellamont Street and we would sit on the porch ALL DAY and you would sing to me, man I thought your singing was horrible but I'd give anything just to hear your voice. Smh. May your soul found peace... I LOVE YOU!!!
