“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear loved one. He lived a long time by today's life span, but even though that is the case it is God's purpose for us to live forever. This is why he sent his only-begotten son in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." Adam brought imperfection and death upon us, but the ransom of the Christ will undo what Adam did to us. 1st Cor 15:22 promises, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." May the promise of the resurrection bring much comfort and hope to your sorrow. John 5:28,29###imported-begin###R Jonson###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and hope from this wonderful promise found in the Bible and may you draw closer to Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.(Psalm 83:18 and John 3:16)###imported-begin###Sharon Hill###imported-end##
