“ Dexter... You must be looking down knowing how difficult having to write this is for me. It seems as though your time here was cut so short but, because I am a strong believer in Gods' will, I know this was part of His plan...just not a part of mine. I took for granted we would always be friends and attached in some way. That our boys would play together from time to time. That everytime I heard "verizon" or "comcast", you would come to mind and I'd smile. Not once, did I even imagine this day. Now, all I have to go on are memories. As my tears stream down my face, and I say good-bye to you, please know that I always thought of you as kind, warm, funny, a great father, considerate, full of generosity, the one who loved to have a good time and you always had a new pair of sneakers on (smile). Dexter, you were a great friend. I must cherish our friendship until we meet up again. I love you...love Terri##imported-begin##terri clemons##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. Although it may seem like there is no comfort during this period, there really is a source of comfort for you. It is found in God's Word, the Bible. Please take a minute and read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15. There it highlights the wonderful resurrection hope Jehovah holds out to us all. He is the comforter and promises at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 to "comfort us in all our tribulation." Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful hope.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of Dexter. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This too, was ture when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ We were saddened to hear of your loss. Please know that our prayers and thoughts are with you and your family at this difficult time. May you find comfort and strength from the God of all comfort at 2 Corin. 1:3,4. I hope this message from the Bible comfort your heart and give you the strength to go on.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##
