

Diamonte' I. Howard

April 28, 1998 - April 21, 2018

Diamonte' I. Howard was born to Tamica Howard and the late Vernon Jackson on April 28, 1998 in Baltimore, Maryland. To our great sadness on April 21, 2018, Diesel baby's, life was taken all too soon.

Our Diesel received his education at City Neighbors High School (CNHS). He planned to further his education and was accepted at Wilberforce University for the fall semester.

Growing up in O'DH, young Monte, played AAU basketball for team Silk and with CNHS. He enjoyed being a part of these teams and added the members to his family of the heart.

Diesel Baby loved to travel. He traveled across the U.S. making friends wherever he went. During his most recent travel and stay in Atlanta, Diesel worked at Zaxby's as a cook and at the Braves Stadium as a security guard. Monte was also an extra in the movie The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks and the TV show Star. In September 2017 Diamonte' got his driver's license before his mom who is frequently teased about this. He was a loving son and devoted family man. His light will always shine on every person who had the privilege to meet Diesel Baby.

He leaves to mourn: mother, Tamica Howard; grandmother, Yvonne Jackson; grandfather, Gordon "Boomtown" Johnson; brother, Torro "Whoda" Jenkins; sisters, Trenita Jenkins and Jalai Coles, aunts, Zelda, Karen, Narone, Donna, Cortney, and Tiana; uncle, Darren; great aunts, Rachel, Susan and Karen; brothers of the heart, Brandon and De' Montaz; aunts of the heart, April and Angela; uncle of the heart, Dwayne; along with a host of family and friends.
