

Diane Irma Webster

July 11, 1943 - October 22, 2008

DIANE I. WEBSTER, daughter of the late Thomas E. and Erma D. Webster, was born on July 11, 1943 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. After sixty-five years of life and being a pillar of her family devoting all of her time and energy in the upbringing of generations to come and after a long fight with cancer, she passed away peacefully in her sleep on October 22, 2008. Diane received her education in Baltimore, Maryland attending Dunbar Senior High School, and where shortly upon graduating she started working at Johns Hopkins Hospital. There she started and finished a long, loyal career in the records department. She was also a long time member of the St. Phillips Lutheran Church. Diane Webster was a faithful daughter, loving mother and one of the sweetest women you could have ever known. She lived for her family and will always be known for her devotion to others. She will be surely missed and forever remembered for being one of the strongest women we will ever know. Diane leaves to mourn two children, her son, Shawn Joseph Webster Sr. and daughter, Regina Tonya Webster. She also leaves: one brother, Thomas Eugene Webster Sr.; a daughter-in-law, Cheryl Webster; four grandsons, Shawn Jr., Travon, Cameron and Dante Webster; one granddaughter Santana Webster; and many nieces and nephews, cousins, aunts and uncles who will always remember, love, honor and cherish her memory.

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
