

Diane C. Lee

June 8, 1948 - January 14, 2024

DIANE CORINNA LEE was born on June 8, 1948 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was born to Clara Walker and Henry Lee. Diane was the youngest of four children. She was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools and attended Frederick Douglass High School.

Diane was highly skilled in the nursing field. She completed her Associates Degree from Baltimore City Community College. She excelled in her studies and was on the Honor Roll three times for her nursing assistant certification.

Diane was beloved by her family and many lifelong friends. Going to Atlantic City was her favorite pastime, where she often traveled on the weekends for fun and relaxation. She loved her children and grandchildren and enjoyed the simple pleasures in life.

Diane was called home on January 14, 2024. She is predeceased by her parents, brother Howard "Charlie" Walker and son William Custis.

Diane leaves behind a loving family: two siblings, Robert Walker and Joan

Johnson; three loving children, Larry Rich Jr. (Kameahle), Roxann Lee (Andre) and Desmona Ford; eleven grandchildren, Victoria "Paige" Lee, Larry E. Rich III, Timothy Williamson, Anthony Newsome, Naya-Shae Wallace, Cierra Rich, Darian Rich, Eryn Rich, Natalie Rich, Christopher Rich and Alexander Rich; seven great-grandchildren, Da'Meir Lee, Kamora Williamson, Taylor Williamson, Avonte Ross, Diarri Rich, Lariah Rich and Kairo Rich; two nieces, Joyce White and Jacqueline Johnson and one nephew, Maurice Johnson; and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins and friends.

She was loved very much. She enjoyed music and lived life on her own terms. She was a force to be reckoned with. We will miss her very dearly.
