July 19, 1932 - January 12, 2008

DIANE NAOMI JOHNSON, daughter of the Carrie and Harvey Staton, was born July 19, 1932 in Bennettsville, South Carolina. As a young child, her parents relocated to Baltimore, MD where she attended the public schools and graduated from Dunbar High School in the class of 1949. She later attended Coppin State College. She was confirmed at St. Philips Lutheran Church in 1953. On February 19, 1954, she was united in marriage to James M. Johnson. From this union, one son, Ronald H. Johnson, M.D. was born. Diane worked briefly at the Hecht Company in Baltimore early in her marriage. After the birth of her only child she remained at home to devote her energies full time to husband, raising her son and maintaining an immaculate household. She was known throughout her neighborhood for the elaborate holiday and birthday parties she gave. She was devoted to taking care of her family, doting on her husband of fifty-four years and boasting of her son, a practicing physician. Her passions included gardening, fashion and travelling. Her adventures took her to almost every state in the country, from the sandy beaches of Maryland's Eastern Shore to the revelry of Louisiana's Bourbon Street, to the "Price is Right" Studios in Southern California. She delighted in meeting people from all walks of life and greeted each with a warm smile and inquisitive nature. Diane leaves to cherish her husband, James; their son, Ronald; one sister, Albert Bennett; sisters-in-law, Thelma Tanner, Ruth McBride and Viola Cox; brothers-in-law, Bernard Bennett, Herbert Johnson and North H. Johnson; and a host of relatives and friends. Diane was dearly

“ To The Johnson Family: When death separates family members, such great loss can result in deep sorrow. Even the perfect man Jesus gave way to tears when his friend, Lazarus, died even though he knew that he had the power and he intended to bring him back to life. It is natural to experience sadness when death claims someone you love but God's word tells us at 1Cor15:26 that the "last enemy death is to be brought to nothing." Complete reliance on "the God of all comfort" will help you to endure during this difficult time. (2Cor1:3&4)##imported-begin##Chandra Murphy##imported-end##
