

Diane M. Peek

August 28, 1955 - October 16, 2013

DIANE MARIE PEEK, also known as “Puddy”, was born August 28, 1955 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania to Jodelle Peek and Lester Downing. She received her wings and went to a better place Wednesday October 16, 2013.

Diane spent most of her youth growing up in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania with her mother, and four of her sisters. She was later reunited with another sister and brothers. During her high school years they moved to Lansing Michigan where she graduated from Sexton High School in 1973. She later moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania where she met and married Mingo Wilson. Though they later parted ways, they first gave life to two beautiful daughters. Diane went on to travel living in Indiana, Michigan and finally settling in Baltimore, Maryland. She worked many jobs, but her passion was a message therapy. She put herself through school, brought a message table and even owned her own business, “Just A Touch Away.” When her business closed she kept her table and still loved to help and heal people through touch. She helped people, touched hearts, and made loved ones wherever she went.

Diane loved music, reading, traveling, and meeting new people. She was all about Peace and Love. Those who knew her knew “Peace” to be her signature hello and see you later. She was honest and down to earth. So many people sought out her shoulder to lean on and her ear to listen. She would always listen and help without judgment. She will be missed by all that crossed her path.

Diane is survived by; her mother, Jodelle Peek; her father, Lester Downing; four sisters: Denise Peek, Tommie Peek, Tammy Peek, Lisa Downing; Two brothers: Marcus Downing, Virgil Downing; Two daughters: Pheobe and Emaani Wilson; four grandchildren: Eric Jenson, Malik Lauderdale, Derrick Davenport, Hadiyah Lorick; three nieces: Ebonie Boyskins, Erika Peek, Dany'ell Briggs; three nephews: Stephen Payne, Dametreis Day, Cartese Briggs, as well as a host of aunts, uncles, great nieces and nephews, cousins and extended family.

“ To the family of Diane M. Peek:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
