“ I did not know Diane personally, but I know the sting of death. So I would like to share with you what was very comforting to me. In the situation of Lazarus, I learned of the compassion of Jesus and his promise for us for the future. Just as he awoke Lazarus from the the sleep of death, he will do the same for our loved ones. That hope helped to sustain me through this process as the pain slowly subsided. (Acts 24:15).

“ May the family of Diane Thomas find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) With deepest sympathy,
