“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My sincere sympathy to your family. May God's promise at 1 Cor. 15:26, to remove our enemy death bring you comfort. Also, Isa. 26:19 says our dead ones will live, they will rise up. I'm sure you would agree the hope of the resurrection is very encouraging especially, when we experience the loss of a loved one. May you find comfort in God's promises.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. During times of sorrow it may seem that there is no source of comfort. However, comfort can be found from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort..." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) He tells us about the wonderful resurrection hope at Acts 24:15 and tells us what we must do to benefit from this wonderful provision at John 17:3. Please contact me if you would like to talk more about this wonderful source of comfort.###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs Calloway, I offer my sincere condolences. Please find comfort in the hope of the resurrection. Jesus showed the power of the resurrection while on earth by bringing many back to life. He knew how painful it was when people lost their loved ones, because he even grieved when his friend Lazarus died. John 11:35,36 says when he found out Lazarus had died, "Jesus gave way to tears." Therefore the jews began to say; See what affection he used to have for him." So Jesus and his father Jehovah cares very deeply when we grieve because of our losses, and their purpose is to bring to life millions who have died. At Rev 21:4 it says, :And he will wipe out every tear from out eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Please find comfort in his promises, and know that one day they will come true.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##
