

Deacon Dianna Elanor Lofton

January 10, 1951 - October 3, 2016

Deacon Dianna Lofton's soul rejoiced in the heavens with her father God on Monday, October 3, 2016. She immediately started working on the front line throwing blessings down to those she left behind. She was born January 10, 1951, to the late Rev. Delano and Mrs. Anna Lou Page Sr. in Richmond, Va. Dianna was the oldest of five siblings. She is preceded in death by two of them Delano "Mane" Page J r. and Leonard "Butch" Page. Until that very day God called her home her siblings Rev.Vance L.Page, Michael A. Page (Sandra) and devoted sister, Arthenia Page will tell you she nurtured and loved each of them as if they were her own.

Everyone who knew Dianna knew she was a lover of family and she lived her life every day giving unselfishly without complaint to anyone who needed advice, a word, a meal or a prayer.

Dianna was s a TRAILBLAZER, a FASHION DIVA, a MOVER and a SHAKER who didn't talk about it, she did it.

Passionate about women, she prided herself on encouraging all women, especially single parents to love themselves and go for their dreams. It started way back when she teamed up with her dear friend, Earl Fleming and started putting on powerhouse productions such as the Lofton Models and the 7 Divas Standing. She was also corporate executive with Thalhimers department store, 28 years; she led her team to the #1 spot in sales.

Dianna was a DEACON at St. Paul's Baptist Church, a COMMUNITY ACTIVIST, a CONSULTANT and a woman of CLASS' and GRACE.

While being on the board at "Boaz & Ruth" they received honorary for their community work in Highland Park from President Barack Obama. Dianna birth "High Touch" a ministry that connected businesses with the community to create job opportunities for all. She was a dynamic woman who was, also a special guest on the Oprah Winfree show.

She leaves to cherish her memory a daughter; Rakel Lofton, two sons, Keven Page (Lafonia) and Tracey Lofton; 10 grandchildren, 8 great Grandchildren, a devoted Aunt, Bertha Mosby and a devoted Goddaughter Joe'i Chancellor.
