

Dietrich Thomas Jones

January 20, 1955 - November 13, 2006

DEIDRE G. THOMAS, the eldest child of Elizabeth Spencer and James Thomas, was born January 20, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life November 13, 2006 at Sinai Hospital. Deidre received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She graduated from Frederick Douglas High School. Immediately following high school she began her work career at the University of Maryland Hospital as a nursing assistant. During the course of her life she held many jobs. More recently she was a child care provider and home health aide caring for the elderly. As a young child Dietrich, as she preferred to be called, had a profound love of God. Reared in the Holiness tradition, Deitrich received the Holy Spirit and was baptized as a young child. It was not unusual for her to bring her younger sister to church after first promising to buy her some candy. At a young age Dietrich married Richard Jones but this ended in divorce. Dietrich made friends wherever she went. She loved going to church and listening to “church music”. She loved a good party, and despite being “tight and stingy” she was always willing to contribute something. She will surely be missed by all who loved her. Dietrich leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Elizabeth Spencer; grandparents, Roosevelt and Gladys Chatman; five sisters, Kim, Karen, Toni, René and Darlene; three brothers, Albert, Michael and Raymond; a devoted friend, Miss Rosa Oliver; several nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her father, James Thomas.

Tribute Wall

“ Dietrich Thomas Jones

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM