

Diondra A. Jennings

July 23, 1986 - August 25, 2020

Diondra Anissia Jennings was born to Andrew and Ruth Jennings on July 23, 1986 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on August 25, 2020 after a lengthy illness.

She was educated in the Baltimore City School system obtaining her High School diploma from George W. F. McMechen High School. After graduation she was employed at The Chimes, Inc. Sheltered Workshop.

Diondra was friendly and always had a welcoming smile even when she did not feel well. She referred to her mother as “sweetie” and her father as “Leonardo”. They were this pampered princess’ royal and loyal subjects.

Diondra had many interests including doing arts and crafts, collecting dolls and stuff animals, putting together puzzles and Lego buildings, eating out, watching movies and spending time with family and friends. She loved getting her hair done by her special friend she called “Beaker”.

The most memorable highlight of her life was going to her Prom in a stretch limousine, courtesy of her Uncle Arnold and Aunt Virgie.

She leaves to cherish her memory: parents, Andrew (Leon) and Ruth Jennings; one brother, Victor Jennings; one Aunt, Virgie Williams; two Uncles, Arnold Williams and Larry Jennings; one cousin, Stacey Williams; God-parents, Michele and Aaron Harris and Denise Harden, special family members Wanda and Glen Pagan, and a host of family and friends.
