

Doletha Benbow-Dillard

December 11, 1964 - February 22, 2005

Doletha Benbow-Dillard, daughter of the late Woodrow Benbow and Irene Toney, was born on December 11, 1964, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on February 22, 2005. Doletha, or Dore as she was affectionately known, was educated in Baltimore, MD. Graduating from Southwestern High School, she received her AA Degree from the Community College of Baltimore, and graduated from Coppin State College with her BA Degree in Early Childhood Education. She was an educator for nearly 20 years and was teaching 2nd grade at Rognel Heights Elementary School at the time of her departure. She loved her students and they loved her, even devoting many hours to teach students enrolled in the Sylvan Leaning Program. She accepted Christ at an early age and was a baptized member of the Revelation Baptist Church here in Baltimore. She was joined in holy matrimony on June 28, 2003, to Stephen Dillard—who affectionately referred to her as “his little butterball” or “his Queen.” Doletha enjoyed cooking, talking with friends and loved ones, but most of all shopping and taking care of her family. Cherishing her memory are: husband, Stephen Dillard; daughter, Dinescia Houchens; son, D`Andre Benbow; sister, Isabelle Jones; brother, Tyrone Toney; brother-in-law, John Jennings; uncle, Watch Burgess; second mother, Mildred Prince; nieces, Denise, Catina and Nicole; nephews, Leroy, Tavon, Antwann and Roy; god-sister, Charese; godchildren, Augustine, Tenia, Tyesha and Demonte; best friends, Dellphine and Andrea; adopted daughter, Tiarece; adopted sister, Louise and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and special friends.

“ My deepest sympathy is with you during this time of great lost. It is always very hard to cope with the lost of a loved one. It is so important for us all to know we have a comfort, a comfort of a loving God who cares so very much about us. This is why he lets us know according to his word the bible that death will no longer have a place among the living. Jehovah will turn all the negative effects of death away from us all. Jehovah says according to Isaiah 45:18 he created the earth to be inhabited. Psalms 115:16 says he gives the earth to man. Why would God do such a thing because Jehovah is a God of love 1John 4:8 and being a loving God who loved us first he makes these provisions for those loving him that the righteous will reside upon the earth forever stated at Psalms 37:29. So, being God's purpose for us is to live forever than there is truly no place for death to reside among the living. That is why at Rev. 21: 3, 4 states death will be no more... and the things that causes death will be no more. Jehovah will also correct the damage of death by resurrecting all those who have died according to John 5:28, 29. What a joyous occasion when we will be able to enjoy the lives of those we love once again. This is Jehovah's promised hope from the beginning of mans creations. The hope of everlasting life on earth. Titus 1:2 May this bring comfort to your wounded heart.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry that you had to lose a loved one. Death is such a terrible tragedy for us all. But we can obtain comfort and a hope of seeing our loved ones again in a beautiful new world, that Jehovah is bringing about under his kingdom arrangement. In that new world he promises that death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former will have passed away. I hope God's promises give you hope and helps your family endure.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ Dear family & friends of Mrs. Dillard, please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your wife, mother, sister, and friend. Though a stranger to your family, I am no stranger to the effects death brings. This enemy strikes at anytime and causes pain that can't be compared with any other kind of pain. Please be assured that Almighty God Jehovah knows what you're going through and he is going to do something about it. At Isaiah 26:19 it says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust..." How comforting this verse is for all of us who has lost a loved one. Our loving Heavenly Father promises us that we will see them again. We won't have to die, rather, THEY will live, THEY will rise up and have much reason to cry out joyfully. In just a short while, this promise will be fulfilled and this should bring all of us comfort. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of your recent loss, please accept my condolences. May you be comforted in the promises found in God's word. At Revelation 21:4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Just think one day you can reunite with love ones. May many promises found in the Bible help you.##imported-begin##Julia Brown##imported-end##

“ To the family, I want to express my sincere condolences on the passing of your loved one. Losing a person in death is unnatural because Jehovah God did not make us to die. He promises to give us comfort in our time of need because at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 it states that he is the God of all comfort. Another way he comforts us is by the hope laid out in the scriptures. Please read John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3,4; Psalm 37:10,11. Again, please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Hello Family...I am sorry to hear of Dora's passing...it is my belief that if one dies in the Lord...they will live again. My prayers are with you all during this hour of bereavement. Keep your hands in God's hands and I know He will lead you down the right path. Dora will be missed in the physical realm but never will she leave our hearts. I love you all and hope to see you on tomorrow. Peace and blessings, Stink!##imported-begin##Veronica Smith##imported-end##
