May 23, 1958 - November 29, 2022

DOLLENE DIRETTA PEELS, (DOLL as she was affectionately called), was born on May 23, 1958, daughter of the late Benjamin McCoy and Shirley Thompson.

Dollene was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools. She held various jobs in child day care, customer service and catering. She possessed DIY talents that she utilized in tackling household projects, making jewelry and plant cultivation. She was also gifted enough to start rose bushes from seeds. Although she kept herself busy using her many skills, her first love was family. Her second love was her dog. Her bright smile and kind soul was an inspiration and endearment to the soul.

She is preceded in death by her beloved grandmother Willie May Workman, parents Benjamin McCoy and Shirley Thompson, siblings Warren Workman and Vondell Venable.

Doll leaves to cherish her memory: her loving son, Lewis Ervin III (Jami Ritchey daughter-in-law); devoted brother, Robert Coates (Evette Coates sister-in-law); nieces, Jayda Coates, Arielle Coates, Shanay Fuller, Shantelle Leonard, Cierra Leonard; nephews, Percy Leonard, Mancino Coates, Robby Coates; a host of cousins, as well as other loved family and friends, each the better for knowing her.
