

Dolly Richardson

September 30, 1915 - April 10, 2003

Dolly Richardson was born in Scotledneck, North Carolina. She is the daughter of Audrey Nelson and Ike Dixon. She departed this life on April 10, 2003 after a lengthy illness. Dolly was educated in the public schools of North Carolina. She worked at various jobs on test farms in Rocky Mount until she moved to Baltimore in 1940. Her sister, Margaret Knight Trippe later joined her in Baltimore. Upon arriving in Baltimore, Dolly worked at the Gibbs Packing House and the Maryland Ship Yard. She also worked for Mr. and Mrs. Brent and Ann Matthews. She helped to raise their children. She was part of their family and they loved her very much. Dolly was a faithful member of the Mount Carmel Baptist Church for nearly fifty years. She served under three pastors and was a faithful usher until the very end. Even when she could not stand, she would still wear her usher's uniform. Dolly leaves behind to cherish her memory: one son, Octavial Nelson; one granddaughter, Beverly Jean nelson; two great-grandsons, Anthony and Calvin Hart; one niece, Marion Gaines; one nephew, Samuel Knight; seven great-great grandchildren; a host of great nieces and nephews, cousins, Joe Bell and Robert Bell; a host of other relatives and friends. Dolly has two special friends, Elizabeth Stevenson and Rose. Mother, you went away so fast, I didn't know how long it would last. You didn't even say good-bye. I didn't even have time to cry. But in my heart, you are still alive. I know that God had to do His will, He picked you out from the best, because He knew that you need your sweet rest. Humbly submitted, Your Loving Son, Octavial

Tribute Wall

“ Dolly Richardson

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Dolly Richardson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the family of Dolly Richardson: I want to express my sympathy and offer some comforting words that has helped me during my time of deep sorrow. "One suffers when a loved one dies because death is a loss to a void beyond all understanding." But the Bible offers hope for our dear loved one at John 5:28, 29, which says, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out, and John 11:25, says, He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, the Bible offers us hope of being reunited with our dear loved one on a paradise earth, which is so near at hand. Psalms 37:29 says, "the righteous themselves will possess the earth." Please accept my condolence.##imported-begin##Ruth Thomas##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM