

Dolores K. Griffin

December 5, 1936 - November 4, 2002

Dolores Katherine Griffin, daughter of Herbert Tates, Jr. and the late Bernice Stokes was born in Baltimore City, Maryland on December 05, 1936 and departed this life on November 4, 2002. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Dunbar High School in East Baltimore. She was an avid reader and possessed a great capacity and thirsts for knowledge and was always willing to learn new and different things. This eventually led to employment with the Baltimore City government's Department of Housing and Community Development for fourteen years until her untimely passing. Dolores affectionately known as "Mama" had numerous friends and made new ones wherever she may have gone. She leaves to cherish her fond memory: husband, Robert Griffin; three sons, Robert Griffin Jr., Roger Griffin and Mark Griffin. She also had two daughters, Sheryl Glover and Terri Stokes; father, Herbert Tates Jr.; sister, Brenda Stokes; brother, Irvin Dean, and a host of brothers and sisters-in-law, eight grandchildren, Amon, Ashleigh, Jennifer, Joseph Jr., Sean and Valerie also survive her and will most assuredly miss her love and guidance.

“ Mom, there once was a place where I could go. Where I could lay down my heavy load. All my troubles would melt away like nighttime into a sunny day. I never knew the day would come when you would be gone like the setting sun. Now all I have is yesterday, I'd give anything just to hear you say... Come in, sit down and rest awhile. Let me fill you up with a smile. All my troubles would melt away, like nighttime into a sunny day

Oh because of you I sing. Because of you I give. And I know that you'll always be here because in me you' live.

*My sweet ma I love you more than words could ever say.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ To The Griffin Family, My sympathy goes out to you at this time in your lives. I am keeping you in my prayers and asking God to give you all comfort and peace. Just know that "Momma" is with her Maker and in pain no more. Remember to take one day at a time. The pain will go away but the memories will remain always. Respectfully, in Jesus' Name, Darlene##imported-begin##Darlene Glover##imported-end##
