

Dolores Parker

December 16, 1934 - December 9, 2013

DOLORES VERNETT PARKER, daughter of the late Preston Little and Anna Forbes, was born on December 16, 1934 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on December 9, 2013 at Johns Hopkins Hospital of an unexpected illness.

Dolores received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. She started her career at the young age of sixteen at Mt. Washington Cleaners and ending her career at Johns Hopkins University (Dietary Prep.).

Dolores was affectionately known as “Lorsie.” People were drawn to Lorsie wherever she went. Lorsie was a loving and caring person. We all know how she loved her casinos, Maryland State Lottery and let's not forget her card games. Lorsie was a devoted, true friend and loved one.

Dolores believed in and prayed to our heavenly Father until He called her home.

Dolores leaves to mourn: her daughters, Lorrie L. Decker, Sheila and Jerri Parker; two grandsons, Charles Decker (Chuckie) and Robert D. Jackson (Darrell); three great-grandsons, Stephon, Shaquille and Darrell Jr.; and a dear friend, Clifford Drivers; and a host of cousins and friends.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

linn & family - December 22, 2013 at 07:57 PM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
