

Dolores Wade

March 14, 1929 - June 19, 2017

DOLORES E. WADE, born March 14, 1929 was the daughter of the late William Small and the late Ella Mae Small Harrison. She quietly departed this life June 19, 2017 after a long illness.

She was married to James F. Wade who preceded her in death. Dolores was educated in the Baltimore Public School System. Dolores gave her life to Christ early at Perkins Square Baptist Church. Dolores was employed by the Henryton State Hospital as a food service worker and for a brief time was also employed by Morgan State University.

Dolores was the mother of six wonderful children, four girls Laverne Washington, Letitia Wade, Lois Wade and the late Lajetta Brooks her precious baby girl. Her two sons whom she adored so abundantly Lamont Wade Sr. and Leroy Brooks

Dolores was a very bright person who had a hilarious wit. She possessed a special quality of being able to make you laugh hilariously. Now on the other hand, she could be so serious with a no nonsense manner; and when she spoke in that authoritative voice everyone listened. She was a social butterfly who enjoyed entertaining family and friends. Her major undeniable traits were her compassion, generosity, the ability to love unconditionally. With these qualities she made everyone feel comfortable in her presence. Dolores will be greatly missed.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, grandchildren Robin, Email, Kimberly, Lamont Jr., Latoya, Stephen, Darrell, Terrence, Amanda, the late Adam Robinson, Taylor, Kim, Danielle and Eric; brother, Andre King; sister, Naomi Stanford; daughter-in-law, Stephanie Wade; and host of great, great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.
