

DOMINIC KNIGHT

September 9, 1980 - September 22, 2019

Dominic DeAngelo Antonio Knight, son of Michael Knight and Pamela Scott was born at Sinai Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland on September 19, 1980. Although Michael Knight was his biological father, he was raised by the late Sterling McCollum, who Dominic affectionately called Dad. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Dominic attended Northwestern High School and received various certifications. He specifically received the Serve Safe Certification in 2011 for completing a food and beverage safety training program from the National Restaurant Association. His food was so good, it was featured in the local newspaper.

Dominic was a very creative thinker. He would often design custom shoes that he would paint himself. You could see him wearing never seen before pieces of jewelry that he created. Dominic was into fashion and enjoyed being different and wearing various styles. In addition to designing, Dominic was always thinking of things to invent and businesses to start. I believe we could all say that he was a dreamer.

Dominic started his walk with the Lord early in life at Rose of Sharon under the leadership of Pastor Betty and Monroe Page. He was filled with the Holy Ghost in 2010 and in 2012, he joined Preparing the Way of the Lord Ministries under the leadership of Bishop James Manigault, Jr. He enjoyed singing and served as a Praise and Worship leader. Dominic found solitude in studying the Word and enjoyed sharing his insight on scriptures.

Dominic was a loving and affectionate person. He would frequently think of others and spoke his mind. Dominic would often reach out to family members to check in on them. He enjoyed hanging out with his son, Dontrell, who was his pride and joy.

On Sunday, September 22, 2019, the Lord called Dominic to his heavenly home. Left to cherish his memories are, his mother, Pamela Scott; one son, Dontrell Knight; two brothers Sterling Donnell McCollum (Kena) and Jamal McCollum; two nieces; one nephew; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Proceeding him in death was his dad, Sterling McCollum.
