

Dominic G. Perry

August 28, 1995 - July 31, 2011

DOMINIC GERARD PERRY, son of Dwayne D. Perry and Deborah M. Perry was born on August 28, 1995 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was suddenly call home to rest on Sunday, July 31, 2011. Dominic confessed a Christian life at the Abundant Harvest Ministries Church.

Dominic was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, attending Thomas Jefferson Elementary-Middle School and Edmondson Westside Skill Center. While at Thomas Jefferson, he was a member of the Junior National Honor Society and a member of the basketball team. He was currently a rising sophomore at Edmondson and elected auto mechanics as his trade.

He had a love for music and was often seen strolling with his headphones and iPod. His favorite television show was Martin. Nike as he was fondly called enjoyed being with his friends and family. He loved joking with his nephews and cousins and enjoyed spending time on facebook. He was meticulous, well mannered and caring; and he was exceptional with children.

Nick made friends wherever he went and was loved by all who knew him. He will truly be missed by everyone. He will especially be missed by his family at weekend breakfast where he made everyone watch Martin on his laptop. We will remember his love for fried chicken, Oreo cookies and Arizona Strawberry Kiwi.

He leaves to cherish his life, love, and memory mother, Deborah Perry; father, Dwayne Perry; three brothers, Ronald Jr., Quincy and Dwayne Jr.; sister, Jessica; grandmother, Roselyn Perry; three close devoted nephews, Ronald III, Quincy Jr. and Elijah; four uncles, James, Reginald, Gordon and Clarence (Uncle George preceded him in death); aunt, Belinda; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Dominic, I did not get the opportunity to meet you personally but you were a very respectful and well mannered young man. I would see you walking to school every morning and you would wave to me with your earphones on. I would see you taking care of your front yard while I was taking care of mine and you would always wave to me. At this time I would like to ask God to take care of your family and to give them strength to get throught this very difficult time.

“ No words we can offer can heal your pain but God is the ultimate healer as his word proclaims. These next few days, months and even years may be hard but remember to lean on Jesus he will never be far. I know you have many questions and you can't understand why but remember God is in control as he is the author and finisher of our faith. Dominic was such a wonderful young man, with such promise we can only pray that others will take heed from the life you lost – that his death will not be in vein that others will seek salvation and come to know Christ. This is no funeral it's a home going celebration. We celebrate Dominic the life he lived and the lives that he will bring to Christ. Our prayers are with you.

John 16:20 (NIV)

You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy.

*Sweet Debbie You are sch a good MOM, lam so sadden by your sudden lost of your Son. I share your pain . if ever you need me call on me anytime. Everyone says what a fine young man he was, sorry I did not get to meet him. I know you have lots of good memories to remember him by. He will never leave you, He lives on in your heart. God Bless you Debbie. You did a good job to raise such a fine young man. You both were blessed to have one another. He had to be one fine role model. which was so plain for me to see. I love the stories that I have heard about how fun loving he was. And such a good child. He was so loved
