

Dominic S. Williams

June 28, 1988 - February 8, 2019

It all began on Tuesday, June 28, 1988 as the start of a new day with warm weather and Godly sunlight. Dominic Sean Williams entered into the world as the first born child of Geoffrey Williams and Glenda Purdie in Baltimore, MD. along with his five siblings. Dominic was affectionately known as "Nic" by his father and friends. He received his education in the Baltimore public school system.

"Nic" had a lot of ambition that moved him to work various jobs in order to maintain a life for himself and his children. "Nic's" love for his family was noticed by everyone who knew him. He loved and adored his parents. Their relationship was very unique and blissful. He was a loyal and exceptional big brother to his five younger siblings. "Nic" loved his girlfriend Yazmin, they were inseparable.

He was blessed to be the father of four children: Dominic Jr, Dominique, Collin and Ti'Lei. His children were the center of his attention and he was a proud, affectionate and protective father. He was also a loving step dad to Matthew and Mattison. "Nic" was his children's personal hero and he showered them with his love and attention. Throughout his childhood and adult life he enjoyed listening to music, traveling and watching sports with his family and friends. Just as his entrance into the world was whirlwind event, he so lived his life that way. He was serious about writing rap music and making beats.

Whenever possible he would go into the studio with his two cousins Ronnell and Michael and practice for hours on end. He often commented that his music was not "senior citizen" material and he would go to great lengths to keep it from his elderly relatives and younger family members. Whenever possible and depending on his mood you could sometimes find him in deep thought with pen and paper and handwriting music or sketching.

Dominic Sean Williams' life was a testimony to all who knew and loved him. Even though he only lived to be 30 years of age, he was still blessed to be able to touch so many lives. He will always be remembered for his loyalty, faithfulness, loving kindness and most of all his love for God and family.

Dominic fell asleep in death on February 8, 2019. It is so hard to say goodbye and in doing so he leaves behind Glenda Purdie (Mother) Geoffrey W. Williams (Father) and Cheryl. Siblings-Gary A.
