“ *Bro Don, We shall truly miss you very much, we did not always agree however I will never allow that to hinder the good times we shared together as kids around the way [PENTLAND DR].....Mother Maddie, my condolences to you and your family,,,,,May our lord and savior Jesus Christ the lover of our souls comfort you-all in these trying times.....For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this we groan,earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is in heaven;2 CORINTHIANS 1 and 2.....We are confident, I say,and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the lord. 2 CORINTHIANS 8 GOD BLESS YOU..... LOVE

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ I am sorry for the lost of your loved one in death. May precious memories and promise of the resurrection bring you strength and comfort.

John 5:28-29 states: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgement.

My deepest symphathy
