“ My name is Russell Kingrey. I had the privilage of working as an apprentice with Don. He was a very skilled HVAC Technician. I learned so much working with him and appreciate the time he took to teach me the trade. He worked with my father, Sam Kingrey and Tommy Strickland at Southern Mechanical Service. The last time I saw Don was at Lowes in short pump. We had a great conversation and he was very happy to find out I was a born again Christian! Thank you Don for everything!

“ My Dad! There are no words that can truly describe what an amazing, Godly man he is! He brought me into his home, made me his own, and taught me to love Jesus more than anything else! He is in Heaven, without a care of this world, playing the drum set for the angel choir. He was an amazing role model for me and my two boys. He loved unconditionally and showed the love of Jesus not only to us but to everyone he met. He ran the race well and he will receive many crowns from our King! I will see you soon Daddy! Your Punkin forever!
