“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Despite your pain, you can find comfort in the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28,29: "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". Yes, by means of Jesus' shed blood, we have the real, solid hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. Revelation chapter 21: verse 4 goes further to state that: "And he will wipe every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away. Instead of our loved ones passing away, under God's righteous rule, death will pass away forever.###imported-begin###A. Robinson###imported-end###

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. My husband Joe and I have received much comfort and hope from the Bible over the years and I would like to share it with you. Job 14:14 says "If an able-bodied dies can he live again?...I shall wait, Until my relief comes." This loving promise gives us hope of our dead loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Revelation 21:3-5,Psalm 37:29) May you receive much comfort and strength as you think on this and other loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ the death of a loved one is never easy. it's been almost a year now and although we learn to cope a year is not long at all. I lost my dear little grandson two years ago. he was only one year old and died from sids. the pain gets better but it is such an abnormal situation that our minds never quite grasps it. that's because we were not created with the thought of death. death was only brought into play because of the disobedience of our parents, adam and eve who had no appreciation for the wonderful place that they had in God's arrangement. may we never be like them and miss out on our blessings of the resurrection hope (by means of christ's death),paradise earth with no more death, sickness, poverty, hunger, homelessness, crime or violence ever, ever again. may we be the sort that learns of God's requirements and act upon them so as to enjoy this wonderful prospect of eternal life in paradise on earth with the resurrection of our dead loved ones. nothing this world has to offer is greater than this. please allow me to share more of what Jehovah has promised and what we must do now in order to be a part of His purpose then. my e-mail address is: kic2@verizon.net i look to hear from you soon.##imported-begin##kathy commander##imported-end##

“ There are no words of sympathy that will erase your pain, may you find comfort in knowing that others care about your loss. Your greatest comfort will come from the God of tender mercy (2Corinthians 1:3,4) call on him he will listen to you. In time the memories of the one you love will come without the pain and you will be able to focus not on your loss, but on the joys and blessings you shared by having Donald Bailey in your lives, my deepest sympathy is with all of you.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##
