

Donald T. Bailey

December 8, 1955 - February 2, 2020

DONALD T. BAILEY, son of the late John and Gertrude Bailey, was born on December 8, 1955 in Baltimore, City. He departed this life on Sunday, February 2, 2020 at 7:00 a.m. Donald received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He then found employment at New Joint until he enlisted in the service. Donald went into the U.S. Army on August 6, 1974. He served in the Army for twenty years. He traveled around the country and Europe. He retired from the Army in February, 1992.

Donald met and married the former Charlesta Dale Bryan when he was working at the New Joint. From this union there were no children. Donald joined the Prince Hall Masons while he was stationed in Berlin, Germany in 1981. He also went on to join the following other houses: Shrine, Royal Arch Masons, Knights Templar, and the Consistory. When he departed Germany he was a 32nd Degree Mason. He also joined the Order of Eastern Star. He loved being a Mason and when he returned to the States and got established, he became a 33rd Degree Mason. Donald made friends everywhere he went. He was a life member of the American Legion and he was a member of the Elks. Donald leaves to mourn: His, Charlesta D. Bailey; one daughter, Andra Bailey; one son, Terrence Bailey; five brothers, Elijah, William (Deborah), Marvin (Emma), Ronald, and Thomas (Norma); four brother-in-law, Gary, Calton, Kevin Bryan and Dwayne Armstrong; and one sister-in-law, Vinette Belton. He also leaves seven grandchildren, one great-grandchild, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends. He is preceded in death by two brothers, Granell and John Bailey; and three sisters, Ruby Douglas, Barbara A. heath, and Bailey.
