

Donald R. Brown

July 10, 1971 - March 2, 2026

DONALD ROBERT BROWN, the beloved son of Donald Armstrong and the late Claudette Brown, peacefully transitioned from this life. His mother, Claudette Brown, preceded him in death on March 2, 2004.

Donald received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He dedicated over 20 years of service to Giant Food Market, where he became a valued and respected employee. His coworkers became like a second family who loved and appreciated him dearly.

Affectionately known as “DB,” and “Duck” by his grandfather, Donald was passionate about his work and proud of what he accomplished. He was known for his caring spirit and kindness toward everyone who knew him. Donald had a deep love for sports, especially basketball. He also enjoyed bringing people together for cookouts, spending time with friends and family, and creating lasting memories.

He was a fun and loving person to be around; the patio was his hangout spot that he enjoyed with his buddies. He was loved by everyone. Donald was preceded in death by his mother, Claudette Brown, and his grandparents, Claude and Mary Brown.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory: his devoted son, Donnelle Brown (Tutu); beautiful daughter, Tera

Brown-Garland (Stacey); sister, Tyona Riles; two brothers, Robert Bush and Terrelle Brown; two nieces, Amira and Aray; two nephews, Cameron and Ziare; four special aunts, Veanetta Brown, Yvonne Brown, Ardella (Gregory) Miles, and Loretta Barco; along with many other loving relatives and friends who will forever hold him in their hearts.

PS

“ Brown family, I send love, prayers and condolences to you from me and my family. I will remember Donald as mild mannered and respectful. The Donald I knew was NOT a terror to the neighborhood or its residents. He was quiet and minded his business. We will miss him. (Pamela Jackson-Raleigh, NC)
