

Donald C. Butler

October 28, 1940 - December 13, 2018

Donald C. Butler, son of the late Nancy Chase and Thomas Butler, was born on October 28th, 1940 in Annapolis MD. He slipped into eternal rest after a lengthy illness with his baby sister by his side on December 13th, 2018 at Stella Maris Hospital.

He received his education at Stanton Elementary School and Bates High School of Annapolis MD. He also attended Carver Vo-Tech High School where he obtained his high school diploma in HVAC in 1958 as well as his associate's degree in HVAC at Montgomery College located in Washington DC. He became employed at the National Security Agency (NSA) where he served 42 years in the custodial department.

Between all of his accomplishments he met and married his wife Jerene Neville, who preceded him in death. From this union they had one daughter Tonia Butler. He also had another daughter Jasmin Butler with long term partner Lawanda Dargan.

Donald loved everyone and everyone loved him. His daughters were the love of his life. He would always help anyone in need without hesitation. He loved working on cars, beating his drumsticks to any tune or fixing up anything he could invest his time in to make it better. He LOVED to talk, as mother would say he could talk legs off an iron pot.

Donald leaves to cherish his loving memories: his daughters, Tonia and Jasmin Butler, Linda Crockett of Baltimore MD, Maryann Johnson of Baltimore MD; sons, Michael Neville (Delisa) of Pennsylvania and Ja-juan Smith of Baltimore MD; granddaughter, Lenia Blakney; two sisters, Godaling Thompson (Goldie), Stephanie Belser (Sissy); aunt, Lillian McGowan (Aunt Sis) of Annapolis MD. Two brothers preceded him in death, Larry Sims and Michael Butler as well as one stepson, Jaynori Turner. He also leaves a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, family and friends
