“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

“ I send my condolences to the family of Donald. I know it hurts, but remember that we have a loving heavenly father who cares so much about what we are going through. He knows more than anyone else how deeply death affects a family. This is why he offers this encouragement found at Isaiah 66:13 which says, 'Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people. He views death as our enemy, and he promises at 1st Corinthians 15:26: 'As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing.' One day we have the wonderful hope of being reunited with our loved ones again. May Jehovah God, through his Son Christ Jesus, comfort and sustain you until you see your dear Donald once again.
