“ To the family of Mr. Lewis, please accept my heartfelt condolences. Death reallly hits us hard. It is a heartbreaking situation none of us look forward to, and it especially hurts when we lose someone we love. One day, sickness and death will be a faded memory, because God has said that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more. At Isaiah 65:17, Jehovah promise; "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth; and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." One day family, no more sorrow, no more tears. Then the dead will experience the same hope the Apostle Paul expressed at Acts 24:15 which says,"And I have hope toward God that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."May the hope of someday being reunited with Donald bring much joy to your heart, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the Lewis family! I hope you all are having peace of mind and heart. Lossing a dear loved one set us back , however comfort, 1 Cor1:3, is at your finger tips in the bible at Rev.21:3-5, ALL THINGS WILL BE MADE NEW". Imagine the tears of Joy for all mankind living. I am looking forward to that in the near future.May life journey be kind to you all.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
