

Donald P. Fleet

July 15, 1956 - January 12, 2006

DONALD PURNELL FLEET JR. was born in Baltimore, Maryland on July 15, 1956 to Donald Purnell Fleet Sr. and the late Enna Williams Fleet. He departed this life after a short illness on January 12, 2006 at Peidmont Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia. Donald, better known as "Donnie," attended Edmondson High School and after graduation he attended Morgan State University for one year. Later he moved to Atlanta, Ga. and attended Morehouse College for two years and he received his bachelor's degree at Georgia Tech. in Electrical Engineering. At the age of sixteen he started his first job at Suburban Country Club and he worked until he moved to Georgia to finish his education. While there, just before his illness, he worked at B.C.G.I. as a Project Supervisor in visual communications. Donnie was well loved by his family and friends. He was good in helping his family and friends with various projects. He was a good-natured man who loved to laugh and joke with all who knew him. He will be greatly missed. He leaves to cherish his memory: a very large and close-knit family, including his dear and devoted father, Donald P. Fleet Sr.; five brothers, Bravette and wife, Connie, Derek, Kenneth and wife Louise, Gerrod and wife Monica, Eric and wife, Lisa; four sisters, Vondalear, Cathelene and husband John Sykes, Lisa and Denise; five nephews, six nieces, three great-nieces, and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and great friends.

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. The loss of one we love is truly difficult to experience. May you find comfort now and in the days to come from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##Gwen W.##imported-end##

“ With deepest sympathy - Almighty God makes a promise thru his son that those who fall asleep in death have the prospect of being resurrected to life everlasting. This is recorded at John 5:21, 28 & 29. The Christ promised that millions will live again in paradise conditions. May you find comfort in this promise and feel free to contact me for more scriptures of comfort.##imported-begin##Mrs. Lewis##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one. Please know that Almighty God knows your pain and promises that we will see our loved ones again. At Isaiah 26:19 we're told; "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust..." May we all look forward to this time in the near future when God's Will is done here on earth as it is in heaven. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
