

Donald P. Frazier

January 21, 1958 - August 31, 2005

Donald P. Frazier, son of the late Susie and Donald P. Frazier Sr. was born on January 21, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life quietly on August 31, 2005 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the Boston, Mass., and later returned to Baltimore, where he entered the National Guard. After which he became gainfully employed as a printer at Diamond Press, Inc. Frazier made friends wherever he went and was always the center of attention to anyone who would listen. All who knew him, as “I’m that Nigga”, we will miss his love for life as well as the “ladies” and the game of chess. He leaves all the fond memories to his extended family and a host of special and devoted friends.

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
