

Donald Parker, Sr.

November 15, 1950 - June 21, 2015

Donald Parker, Sr was born on November 15, 1950 in Baltimore, MD to the late John Parker, Sr. and Naomi Wagstaff. On June 21, 2015, he was called home to spend Father's Day with his Heavenly Father, Donald accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his savior, at an early age, was baptized at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Baltimore, MD He recently rededicated his life and began a closer walk with God.

After graduating from Baltimore City College ("City Forever") in 1968, Donald began working with his father at Bethlehem Steel In 1974, Donald began working for the Mass Transit Administration as a Bus Driver, where he proudly worked for almost 20 years. His love for driving later led him to Broadway Services, Veolia and Johns Hopkins where he continued working in transportation.

In April of 1973 he married Linda Payton and from this union Denise and Lisa was born. He was later blessed with two sons, Donald, Jr. and Marvin and a daughter, Sarah.

Donald enjoyed watching westerns and the Orioles, completing crossword puzzles, fishing and spending time with his grand-daughter, Amyrah. He was a straight forward man with a “jaw dropping” sense of humor and a smile that could light up a room.

(Natasha), Marvin, Sarah, and Brandon; grandchildren: Brianna, Tatiana and Amyrah; siblings: John, Jr. Leroy (Rhonda), Loretta, Anthony(Pandora) and Zelma Parker; aunts uncles, host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends and best friend
