“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the entire family. It is so sad that we live in a time when we have to lose our dear loved ones in death. But please know the bible promises a time when the sickness and death we now deal with will be a thing of the past. No longer will we mourn for our dear loved ones. Please gain comfort in scriptures such as John 5:28,29.

“ My sincere sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. It seems no greater sadness is felt than when someone dear to us is lost in death. May you find comfort in your memories and draw strength from a promise God had provided which gives the hope of someday being reunited with your beloved Donald. (John 5:28,29) This promised future is one that will be filled with great joy because it will include perfect health and everlasting life on a restored paradise earth where "the former things have passed away." (Rev. 21:4; Psalm 37:29) I pray you each find peace at this truly difficult time.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.
