

Dondre Jones

October 5, 1965 - April 25, 2022

Dondre Jones was born October 5, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Louis Jones and the late Helen Jones Barr. He was raised by his bonus mother Lillie Jones and summoned to be with the Lord on April 25th 2022.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked as a butcher and various markets around the city. The World's Famous Lexington market is where he spent the majority of his occupation, working there for over 25 yrs.

Many people visited his place of work just because they enjoyed his presence, funny sense of humor, confidence, customer service and his love for the ladies. Dondre was always the life of the party, had no filter and had a nickname for the most family members as well as himself which was "Master" to his siblings. He cherished the different but special bonds he had with his children.

Those who he left to cherish his memories are three children: Shamira Miles, Dondre Jones, Jr. Brittney Jones, one son-in-law: Tavon Miles, six grandchildren: DezJuan Jones Amiya Gordon, Tyshon Jones Dasquan Jones. Dajinae Jones and Kayden Jones, six siblings: the late Louis Jones, Jr the late Kevin Jones Patricia Jones. Tiffany Jones, Sabrina Jackson and David Barr Jr., his childhood sweetheart who would later become the mother of his children and close friend: Wanda aka Pumpkin, ten nieces and nephews: Ebony Blackwell, Anthony Griffin, Maya Jackson, David Barr Jr., David Williams, the late Darryl Burks, Tinika Mayo, Dione Jones, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I went to high school with Dondre and he always kept me smiling and the King of a good joke. We lost contact after graduating but I later found him at Lexington Market selling fish. I often took my Mom, Dad, and Daughter their when I bought fish. He always talked about his grandkids. My codfish won't be the same. May you rest perfectly in peace Dre. My condolence's to your family.
