“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time. Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.

“ I still remember when I had just started working in the Security West building at the Social Security Administration and I saw Donette. She still looked the same as when she was in elementary school. Donette and Debbie definitely were identical twins. I am still trying to figure out how I knew who was who, back in the days. The last time I saw both of them walking out of Saint Bernadine's Church on Edmondson Avenue, I could not tell who was who.

This gift of Interlocked Rings represents the bond that twins will always have. It can never be broken. Although one may not be in the flesh, they are still in the spirit and very dear to your heart.

“ 2Corinthians 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, 2Cr 1:4 who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

2Cr 1:5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also abounds through Christ.

god bless.

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.
