Donna attending Yahweh's Philadelphia Truth Congregation. Her congregation valued her as a faithful member and ambassador of good will. It was noted that Donna had the gift of making anyone feel, comfortable and welcomed. Her pastor referred to her as a breathe of fresh air, and boy was she funny. And yet, Donna demonstrated a serious, and deep faith in Almighty Yahweh.

Donna is survived by her parents Mamie A. Brooks and the late William H. Brooks of Randallstown, MD, Deborah J. Joyner of Lebanon, PA (sister), Dorian L. Just like her Addison predecessors, Donna was loving, creative, and had a deep need for independence and autonomy. She was a gracious and gregarious soul.

Many people have a way with words, Donna had a way of being. She was never fully aware of her apparent outer beauty, and people were always immediately struck by her profound quick wit, gentle nature, and extremely comforting presence Donna was engaged with life.

“ *Dear Mrs. Brooks, Deborah, and Dorian,
I was SO sorry to hear the news about Donna. I apologize for being unable to attend your services, but my daughter was getting braces put on at that time. Please know that our family has been praying for Donna and all of you ever since my mother shared the news with us.*

Donna was a beautiful person. I have many fond memories of playing with her as a child. The thing that stands out most to me is that she always made me laugh and smile. She was full of life and love. I know that she will continue, in Heaven, to intercede for all of you and your needs until you are together again.

*May God Bless and Comfort you all during this sorrowful time,
Kelly (Anderson) Molino*
